

Artin L-functions and special values at  $s=0$

Harold Stark

Zeta functions of number fields split into pieces multiplicatively according to group representation theory. The pieces are known as Artin L-functions. These functions are known to be meromorphically continuable to the entire  $s$ -plane. The course will discuss how this happens and explore the values at  $s=0$ .